RALEIGH, NC: Members of Micajah Bullock Chapter, NSDAR volunteered 3,527 service hours to their community during 2021. These hours included maintaining cemeteries, assisting local food banks, initiating conservation efforts, making and distributing face masks, supporting local schools and teachers, collecting and sorting clothing for the underprivileged, supporting and honoring veterans, researching genealogical records, and more.

The National Society Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) is a women's service organization whose members can trace their lineage to an individual who contributed to securing American independence during the Revolutionary War. Today's DAR is dynamic and diverse, with over 185,000 members in 3,000 chapters in the United States and abroad. DAR members annually provide millions of hours of volunteer service to their local communities across the country and world. DAR chapters participate in projects to promote historic preservation, education, and patriotism. Over one million members have joined the organization since its founding in 1890.
